SOCIETY

Leap-Year Party.

The belles and beaux of a leap-year dancing party danced to their hearts' content last evening at the Outrigger Club, when the ladies of Honolulu complimented the young men by bidding them to a party gotten up by the girls and arranged for the pleasure and comfort of the boys. It was a most delightful and novel evening, for the girls were the attentive ones, attended assiduously to the wants of the sterner sex, and saw to it that their programs were filled, brought ideas and in every way carried out the idea of a leap-year party.

Among those present were: Miss Hazel Buckland, Miss Myrtle Schuman, Miss Ruth Soper, Miss Thelma Murphy, Miss Dorothy Wood, Miss Martha McChesney, Miss Ruth Anderson, Miss Helen McLean, Miss Katharine Ashby, Miss Carrie McLean, Miss Marian Chapin, Miss V. Buckland, Miss Helen Spalding, Miss Rose Steinhilber, Miss Ethel McKendall, Miss Fanny Hoogs, Miss Alice Hoogs, Miss Francis Cochran, Miss Beth Woods, Miss Margaret Jones, Miss Carol Low, Miss Helen Jones, Miss Ruth Johnson, Miss G. McGrath, Miss Marjory Preeth, Miss Caille Lucas, Miss Beryl Jones, Miss Crichton Jones, Miss Hand Jones, Miss Ester White, Miss Beatrice White, Miss Ruth Benton, Miss Doris Taylor, Miss Ina Ferguson, Miss Roy Bell, Miss Bell McCortis, Miss Blanche Soper, Miss Eva McCortis, Miss Cordeila Getman, Miss Hazel Gear, Misses Peacock, Miss Grace Robertson, Miss Margaret Deas, Alexander Anderson, Allen Renison, Vernon Timberlake, Mr. Calahan, Mr. Anderson, Vernon Tenney, Dickson Nott, Malcolm Tuttle, Frank Hoogs, Jack Galt, Cyril Hoogs, Edward Killo, Jack Guard, Marston Campbell, Bert Clarke, Oswald Stephens, Daniel McCristion, Luther Hough, Geoffrey Padmore, Arthur Hough, Donald Lewis, Percy Nottage, John Ashley, Clarence White, David Larsen, Earl Puchanan, Edith Gibb, Randolph Hutchcock, Philip Dodge, William Paty, Joshua Pratt, Percy Deverill, Mr. Grey, Mr. Sinclair, Mr. Courtney, Mr. Hicker, Francis Cooper, Theodore Cooper, Walter Love, Charles Birnham, Albert Tuttle, Harold Killo, William Schuman, Jane Winne Newton Rogers, Lieutenant Anderson, Lieutenant Robinson, Mr. M. S. M. Mr. Boden, Mr. McDowd, Mr. Schenkel, Mr. Luke Rader, Mr. Bradford Sumner, and Mr. Wore.

One of the most delightful afternoons of the week was given by Mrs. J. H. Quinlan at her pretty home on Young street in honor of Mrs. E. Cherry of Astoria, who has been visiting in Honolulu for the past month and been extensively entertained. The hostess, assisted by her sister, Miss Dowling, received her guests in the drawing room, which was artistically decorated for the occasion. Music was the feature of the afternoon. Mrs. W. H. Clarke (Sydney), who has a beautifully trained voice, charmed her listeners with several songs. Mrs. E. Marshall graciously accompanying her on the piano. Mrs. Marshall and Mrs. Cherry also rendered selections. Master Harry Quinlan played from memory (Valse) de Durand, which was a surprise and delight to the guests. Dainty refreshments of tea, sandwiches and salads were served. At the conclusion little Miss Stephanie Quinlan presented each guest with a bunch of violets. These present, besides the guest of honor, were Mrs. Edward Marshall, Mrs. Ballentine, Mrs. North, Mrs. George McCoy and her sister, Miss Miller, Mrs. W. H. Clarke, Mrs. Rhodes, Mrs. Eberhorn, Mrs. Quinlan and Miss Dowling.

The dance given last night by the Ways and Means Committee of the Myrtle Shrine for the Arab Patrol to collect a sum of money was certainly a decided financial as well as a social success. About two hundred and fifty people were present. Informality was the keynote to the success of this party and a general good time was had by all who attended. The dancing pavilion was draped in bunting flags and palms. Many tourists were in attendance and marveled at dancing in the open and on the beach at this time of the year. Such a thing is almost unknown in any other country but Hawaii. Mrs. Robert Lewis had charge of the cakes and they were delicious. Mrs. George Kluegel prepared the fruit punch and the numerous calls from the same persons proved its quality. Mr. Roscoe Perkins and Dr. Alfred Wall were responsible for this party and it was all they could possibly wish for.

Mr. Alexander Gilchrist Hawes, Jr., was a Friday morning passenger. Mr. and Mrs. Hawes are the guests of San Souel. Since Mrs. Hawes' arrival in town she has been much feted. Many small informally intimate affairs have been planned in honor of this popular woman. Mrs. Hawes is one of the cleverest women in the islands. Her witticisms are original and delightful and she is always a pleasure and an addition to any function. Mrs. Hawes is a very clever amateur actress, a fact that very few Honoluluans know. The pity of it is that she lives so far away and her visits are so far apart.

Miss Johnson gave a tea to the teachers of Punahou on Thursday. After the dormitories were burned, it was necessary to arrange for the teachers, so several charming little bungalows were erected on Alexander street and Wilder avenue to accommodate them. Many pleasant afternoons are spent by the teachers, as well as their friends, and Thursday's party was a delightful one. Miss Johnson's guests were Miss Mamie Winne, Miss Ray Sheldon, Miss Breckenridge, Miss Dillingham, Miss Foster, Miss Smith, Miss Clark, Miss Boden, Miss Williamson, Miss Arthur.

The lecture given by Mrs. Selah Merrill was most interesting and the large number of people present were an acknowledgment of the ability of the lecturer. Following was the form of invitation:

"The Kilauea Art League invites you and your friends to a talk on Jerusalem by Mrs. Selah Merrill, Thursday afternoon at three o'clock, February the twenty-ninth, Kilauea Art League Rooms."

Miss Lydia McStocker entertains at a tea in honor of Miss Kathryn Stevens today. About eighteen young girls are expected. Miss Stevens has endeavored herself to a large circle of people and it is with keen regret that she will be hidden farewell. The girls are all friends of long standing. Miss McStocker's gracious hospitality is well known and a delightful afternoon is expected.

Rev. Father Chusnahan of Ogden, Rev. Father Cooper of San Francisco and Dr. Langdon, also of San Francisco are pleasant hotel guests. These three gentlemen are on a tour of the islands and plan to remain in Honolulu about a month or six weeks. They brought letters of introduction to Honolulu people, so will be looked after. Last Sunday Father Chusnahan gave a very able talk at Punahou Chapel. At the memorial services of the Elks held in Ogden in December of last year Father Chusnahan gave the oration of the day.

Kaimuki is always beautiful, but on a moonlit night it has no equal. Mr. Dagget takes a deal of pleasure in pointing out the natural beauties of this suburban part of Honolulu. After star-gazing through a telescope and otherwise, Mr. Dagget's guests were served with supper. Among those hidden by Mr. Dagget were Mrs. Alexander Gilchrist Hawes, Madame Grunson, Mr. and Mrs. A. Crapp, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hedemann, and Dr. Ferdinand Hedemann.

Honolulu sympathizes deeply with the Morgan family in the loss of Mr. James Morgan, who made his presence effective by his untiring duty as a citizen and friend. He was a man of keen perceptions and great stick-to-it-iveness, and from the very force of his strong personality always got what he started for, when a man less forceful would have failed.

COMINGS AND GOINGS OF THE SMART SET

Mrs. Hyde-Smith, who leaves in today's Manchuria for San Francisco, does not plan to remain very long away, as she anticipates being back in eight weeks. Mrs. Harold Dillingham came up from Mokuia to see Mrs. Hyde-Smith away. Mrs. Dillingham will shortly move back into town, it has been most restful in the country.

Mrs. Walter Francis Dillingham is an ardent and enthusiastic golfer, so has offered a cup as a gift to the one scoring highest in a tournament. It is to be hoped that a large number of ladies will avail themselves of this generous offer of Mrs. Dillingham's luncheon, for those desiring such will be served at the Club.

Mrs. Elizabeth Church was an outgoing passenger on the steamer Wilhelmina. Mrs. Church, after a few weeks at the Stewart Hotel (which, by the way, is the camping ground of kamainas), will go to the Santa Cruz Mountains to spend the remaining weeks of her vacation, after which she comes home to resume her duties again.

Mrs. John A. Balch left on a very sad mission, that of taking her mother's body home for interment. Mrs. Skelley was a woman of very fine character. She was unable to go out very much in a social way, on account of her ill-health, yet all who had the privilege of knowing Mrs. Skelley feel very deeply for Mrs. Balch for her sudden loss.

Twice within a week Judge and Mrs. Sanford Dole have had sorrowful tidings from the mainland. It is only a few months since Judge and Mrs. Dole visited the brother and sister-in-law now in the hospital. Judge and Mrs. Dole are very near and dear to the people of Hawaii, and the sincere and loving sympathy of our islands is extended to them.

Mrs. Charles Sturdevant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lyle, and mother of Mrs. Hugo Herzer, is a visitor in Honolulu. It is some years since Mr. and Mrs. Sturdevant left here, and like all kamainas it is a great pleasure to get home again. Mrs. Sturdevant plans to remain three months.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rice of Kauai, who have been the house guests of Mrs. Rice's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. King, left on Thursday for the Garden Isle. During the Rice's stay in town they were much entertained by many friends, both large and small, being planned in their honor.

Mrs. Poscoe, who has been in Honolulu for the past three months, visiting her mother, Mrs. Dillon, was an outgoing passenger on the Makura, taking that route on her way to San Francisco. Mrs. Poscoe made many friends, who were loth to see her go.

Miss Bonham, who has been the guest of Lieutenant and Mrs. Cunningham of Schofield Barracks, is from York, Pa. Miss Bonham is renewing old acquaintances, having visited here a year ago for several months, when she was a reigning belle in service circles. Unfortunately, Miss Bonham's stay was of only two weeks, she departing on the Sierra.

The Catholic Ladies' Aid had a social meeting Friday afternoon, with Mrs. Eugene Campbell as hostess. After the routine business was attended to delicious refreshments were served. The Aid Society is very busy just now making dresses and undergarments for the Kailhi Orphanage. About twenty members were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vida were departing passengers on the steamer Marama, on their way to Australia. Mr. and Mrs. Vida are really on their honeymoon trip, as they have been married only a couple of weeks. Mr. Vida is going to Australia to enter the cattle business.

Miss Coffee, who is pleasantly remembered by a large circle of Honolulu friends when she visited here, Mrs. A. Gariberg, was married to Mr. Henry Newberg, a rising attorney of San Francisco. The good wishes of her many friends in Hawaii are most pleasantly extended.

Captain and Mrs. Moor N. Falls, who are so pleasantly remembered by Honoluluans, are most comfortably located at Fort Snelling, Minn. The Army and Navy Journal chronicles many dinners, luncheons and teas in which this popular couple are either guests or host and hostess.

Miss Ray M. Sheldon, who has been ill for the past week, has recovered sufficiently to be about. Miss Sheldon is a great favorite with both the faculty and the students. Many messages of inquiry and bouquets found their way to this popular teacher's room.

Mr. F. M. Hatch, who has been in Honolulu for the past several months, leaves today on his way to Washington. Mr. Hatch returned to Honolulu shortly after the sad loss he sustained by the death of his wife, who was a daughter of Madam Hawes.

Mrs. Erwin, wife of Paymaster Erwin, is the house guest of Captain and Mrs. Arthur Marx until their departure for the mainland on March 5th.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Herzer are heard from most favorably. Mr. Herzer, to his delight, has gained in weight, while Mrs. Herzer is solet at one of the synagogues in San Francisco.

Paymaster and Mrs. Payson, who are so pleasantly remembered by a host of friends, are enjoying the balmy climate of Southern France. Paymaster Payson seems a little improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elston were last heard from at Cairo, Egypt. The trip has greatly benefited Mr. Elston's health, which has not been of the best.

Dr. and Mrs. C. B. High have moved into their charming new bungalow in Nuanuu. Dr. and Mrs. High have a very keen sense of the artistic, and this charming home is the development of their thought.

Captain and Mrs. Hand are town visitors, coming in from Schofield Barracks for a few days. Captain and Mrs. Hand are guests of the Donna.

Mrs. Walter Francis Dillingham is to have again the pleasure of her mother, Mrs. Adams, and her brother, Mr. Gaylord. Honolulu welcomes this delightful woman.

Bishop and Mrs. Restarick are being congratulated over the birth of their grandson. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Withington are the happy parents. As Constance Restarick, Mrs. Withington is a well-known girl.

Mrs. William A. Gill has taken a house on York street, in Vallejo, until the Colorado returns from Honolulu, or from China, if the fleet should be sent there.—Army and Navy Journal.

Mrs. C. F. Wood of New York, who is spending a few months at the Seaside, has as her guest for the week Mrs. Shuttleworth of Schofield.

Captain and Mrs. Wilbur and Lieutenant and Mrs. Sam Widdfield are occupying the Kahala-wal residence of Mr. Harry Whitney.

A visitor of two years ago is again in Honolulu in the person of Mrs. Francis D. Smith, who will be the house guest of her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Roy Smith, on Anapuni street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Gains, Dr. and Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Harold Hayseiden are leaving on the Makura for a lengthy trip, Korea, Japan, China and Australia being included in their plans of travel.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Prosser are the owners of a new car. Mr. Prosser is an excellent driver, so the car is a great pleasure to this golf-loving couple.

Mrs. John Rothwell, with her daughter, Miss Thelma, left Honolulu on the Makura for Vancouver. Mrs. Rothwell goes to visit relatives who live in the north country.

Mrs. Emmet May, with her two small children, was a departing passenger on the Wilhelmina for San Francisco, after a six months' visit with her mother, Mrs. Margaret Roth.

Mr. Walter Rycroft was an outgoing passenger on Wednesday. Mr. Rycroft will be gone about three months.

Mrs. James Pine will be a Monday hostess at a farewell tea given in honor of Miss Kathryn Stevens, who will shortly leave Honolulu. Mrs. Pine will entertain about twenty guests.

Mrs. Baker, the charming wife of Dr. Baker of Fort Ruger, will be an acquisition to the ladies of Ruger. Mrs. Baker was here some years ago, at Camp McKinley, and her many friends will extend her a hearty welcome.

Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Waterhouse were outgoing passengers on the Sierra. The doctor and his family plan to be gone three months.

Mrs. Mackall's pupils will give a musical recital on Thursday, March the twenty-first. This affair is being looked forward to with a great deal of pleasure by the many friends of Mrs. Mackall and those of her pupils.

Princess Katanalanaole plans to remain in town for some months, much to the delight of her friends. The Princess does not accompany Prince Cupid to Washington, but will remain in Honolulu until his return.

Miss Wofford of Grass Valley is a visitor in Honolulu for a few months. Miss Wofford is a guest of the Colonial.

Dr. E. V. Wilcox of the Experimental Station leaves today for a short visit to the Coast.

Major A. B. de Saules, who has been an island visitor for the past few weeks, leaves in today's steamer for the mainland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Woods, who came to town for carnival week festivities, will leave for their home in Mana on Tuesday's steamer.

Mr. John Palmer is visiting at Haleiwa for a few days.

NOTED EDITOR OF JAPAN DEAD

E. V. Thorn, well known to Honolulu people and for many years proprietor of the Yokohama Box of Curries, the foremost weekly publication of the Far East, formerly of San Jose, California, died at Manila recently after a very short illness, with Bright's disease. The body will be embalmed and sent to Yokohama for burial.

Mr. Thorn arrived in Manila on a business and pleasure trip. Shortly after his arrival he was taken ill and forced to go to the hospital.

Mr. Thorn was 60 years old and has been a resident of China for a quarter of a century. He leaves a son in Yokohama and a married daughter in New York.

SEE IT AT SACHS'

Among the many dry goods firms of this city who make it a special point to see that the people of Honolulu who desire to be well dressed have the latest in every line is the Sachs Dry Goods Company. This firm is generally in the lead with fashions that are up to date, and anybody getting dresses, trimmings, laces and other feminine apparel at this store can bank on the fact that it is the up-to-the-minute fashion.

The line of Spring millinery that is on display at Sachs is strictly in keeping with what is the proper thing for feminine wear in the fashion centers of the States. The stock is complete now and the time for selection most opportune.

Silk specials for three days beginning Monday at Jordan's.
